

A DAY IN THE LIFE
OF...

NIC STERCKX

Associate @ Michael Page

EDUCATION

Hospitality Management
École hôtelière de Lausanne

SUMMARY

Contributing to the company's success by connecting clients to best available talents in the market

12 years of experience of which
6 years in the Recruitment Industry

Fluent in Dutch, excellent knowledge of French and English

8:30

Screening and calling candidates who match the job descriptions.

14:30

Training with other consultants on how to do the first candidate call. It's partially theory, partially a role-play.

10:00

I have one client meeting per day, to find out how we can help them and propose solutions.

11:00

Writing job descriptions to find the right candidates.

12:30

Go to have lunch with some colleagues in one of the great restaurants in the city centre.

13:30

The need for talented candidates never ceases. I search through the database and on LinkedIn.

16:00

We have a meeting with the two best candidates I've identified for a position.

17:30

Walk with my dog in my hometown Tervuren to close my workday

We're passionate about changing lives.
You'll love working for us.

Would you like to join PageGroup, as Nic did?

Then apply now! We're looking forward to hearing from you.

#JoinPageGroup

PageGroup